

Manchester Islamic High School for Girls

Post: Teacher of English
Status: Full- time
Starting: September 2017
Closing date applications: Monday 15th May 2017

Manchester Islamic High School for Girls is an 'Ofsted Outstanding' rated independent school. We seek to appoint an enthusiastic and well qualified full time Teacher of English to teach across KS3 & 4, and be part of a very successful department. The department has a passion for English and a commitment to delivering outstanding teaching and learning.

The school offers a supportive environment for both staff and students. Student motivation is high, and all staff are expected to recognise, nurture and support the educational, emotional and spiritual development of every student.

The successful candidate will demonstrate a thorough knowledge of the curriculum at both KS3 and SK4, and the ability to deliver inspiring, challenging lessons that maximise pupil progress.

There will be an expectation to contribute to the wider life of the school and demonstrate a commitment to the delivery of extra-curricular and enrichment activities. A respect for the faith ethos of the school is essential.

If you are looking for a new direction with the desire to inspire, then we would like to hear from you.

Manchester Islamic High School for Girls has its own salary scale, and the starting salary for this post is £21,000 -£26,000 according to qualifications, skills and experience.

Safeguarding Recruitment Statement:

Manchester Islamic High School for Girls committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

This appointment is subject to the satisfactory completion of all pre-employment checks, including an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Check and Secretary of State Prohibition Order check.
